276 Requirement for approved behaviour plan for a State school

A State school's principal must ensure there is an approved behaviour plan for the school.
EDUCATION (GENERAL PROVISIONS) ACT 2006 - SECT 277

277 Principal is responsible for developing behaviour plan

(1) A State school’s principal must ensure a process is established for developing a behaviour plan for the school.

(2) In developing the plan, the principal must consult with the following persons--

   (a) the parents of children enrolled at the school;

   (b) the school’s staff and students.

(3) The plan for the school must--

   (a) promote a supportive environment at the school so all members of the school community may work together in developing acceptable standards of behaviour to create a caring, productive and safe environment for learning; and

   (b) promote an effective teaching and learning environment at the school that allows positive aspirations, relationships and values to develop; and

   (c) foster mutual respect among staff and students at the school; and

   (d) encourage all students attending the school to take increasing responsibility for their own behaviour and the consequences of their actions.

(4) Also, the plan must align with the department’s policies about the management of student behaviour.

(5) The plan has no effect unless it is approved by the chief executive.

EDUCATION (GENERAL PROVISIONS) REGULATION 2006 - SECT 22

22 Good behaviour of students

(1) A State school's principal must take reasonable steps to ensure the standard of behaviour of students of the school is clearly defined and monitored while the students are under the principal's care and control.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the principal must ensure students of the school are effectively supervised.
